

Customer Testimonial
Nell pressed my bridal bouquet and when I say I was blown away by it that's an understatement! Most beautiful piece of art I have ever seen that will always hang on the wall of our home. If you are getting married you have to get your bouquet pressed by Nell!

Pressed Flowers by Nell

I specialise in preserving bridal bouquets using a traditional flower-pressing technique passed down to me by my Nana.

Every piece is pressed petal by petal, with care, patience and attention to detail - so your wedding flowers can be cherished for a lifetime, not just a day.

Your flowers will hold so much meaning - and it's an honour to be trusted with preserving them.

I can't wait to create something truly personal for you.

How it works :

1. Book your date

Secure your wedding date with a deposit

2. Flower drop-off

Your bouquet is dropped or posted to my studio within 3-5 days after your wedding.

3. Pressing & preserving

Flowers are carefully pressed over 8 weeks.

4. Design & framing

Your flowers are arranged into a bespoke artwork of your choice and professionally framed.

5. Collection or delivery (12 weeks from wedding date)

Your finished piece is ready to treasure forever 💕
